PICK SIXTY SPORTS WEEKLY TIP:

Almost everyone knows the song "Stuck in the Middle with You," made famous from the movie 'Reservoir Dogs' in the early 90's. Perhaps less famous is the band who wrote the song, Stealers Wheel, and this week it's the perfect soundtrack for the Tampa Bay Buccaneers who are in Pittsburgh to take on the Steelers.

Tampa is one of four NFL teams this season forced to endure a three-game road trip with no byes in-between (the others are the Rams, Broncos and Bengals). In classic Bucs fashion, Tampa opened the mini-tour with a complete blowout in Atlanta, 56-14. On-deck for Tampa is a date with the New Orleans Saints, making this week's game in Pittsburgh a 'divisional sandwich' of epic proportions!

SDQL Text: AD and p:AL and n:A and NB and n:week = week + 1 and 6 <= line <= 14 and total >= 44

Situations like this don't occur often for the simple fact that they are difficult to handle; almost unfair for the road team. As you see with the above text, road dogs between +6 and +14 points are 2-7 SU/ATS with 7 overs and 2 unders in the 'middle' game when coming off a loss. They allow an average of nearly 40 points per game and given the Bucs' horrible defense, we think it's very likely Pittsburgh will score into the 30's. The Steelers are 32-24 O/U off a rushing game of more than 175 yards – tied for fifth highest "Over" percentage in database history, and the Steel Curtain's aging D just ain't what she used to be. Look for Tampa to chip in with enough points to help bump this game over the posted total.

Take the Bucs-Steelers OVER 44.5 points
