SportsBook Breakers Spotlight System of the Day

PLAY AGAINST: Teams that scored at least 2 runs last game with all their runs coming on solo home runs.

511-570 (-0.16, 47.3%) +3.4% ROI

Hitting solo home runs is a quicker way to score runs, but not necessarily more impactful. And going forward, it actually suggests more of a random offensive success. Scoring a run on three base hits is harder than a solo home run, but it also is a sign that more of a team's offense is locked in with successful at bats going forward. So when a team's offense came entirely on solo home runs last game, and that there were multiple of them, it is an indication that they may actually be swinging the bats worse than the run total indicated.
