Roughing the Picker Spotlight System

MLB201 - "Heavy Whipping Cream" is an MLB heavy favorite system. The public falls into the gamblers fallacy in this system and bets against the heavy favorite looking for a bounce back from the underdog.

PLAY AGAINST: Teams in the first five games of the season that average at least 4.96 runs per game last season 172-186 (-0.10, 48.0%) +10.9% playing against.

This is a look at teams that had a strong offense a season ago. That strong offense carries over into these early season expectations, as the average line for this system is -126.5. However, these teams have failed to win even 50% of the games with those favorable lines. On average, they score 4.8 runs per game - still solid, but below their scoring outputs from a season ago.

tpA\(runs\)>4.96 and wins + losses<5

Active against 8 teams Friday.
